HYMN OF THE DAY: THIS IS MY SONG

#887

ACKNOWLEDGING OUR FAITH

A: Let us affirm our faith using Martin Luther's explanation to the First Article of the Apostles' Creed.

C: I believe that God has created me and all that exists. He has given me and still preserves my body and soul with all their powers. He provides me with food and clothing, home and family, daily work, and all I need from day to day. God also protects me in times of danger and guards me from every evil. All this he does out of fatherly and divine goodness and mercy, though I do not deserve it. Therefore, I ought to thank and praise, serve and obey him. This is most certainly true.

(Please kneel or be seated)

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH (after each petition...)

A: Lord, we have set aside this day to remember the very many good gifts that you give to sustain life, and the abundance of gifts that you give to make life full and rich.

C: Accept our thanks for your many good gifts.

A: Lord, you have given us your Son so that we may know the true meaning of love. Because we have experienced your love, we can mirror that love back to you, to our family, to our friends, to our colleagues, and to our fellow church members.

C: Accept our thanks and praise for the love that you give to us.

A: Lord, you have given us meaning and purpose in life. You have given us the responsibility to spread your love through word and deed. We give you special thanks for all of those who are using part of this day to prepare and serve food in your name to those who are hungry and homeless. We give you special thanks for those who care in your name for the sick and hurting in hospitals, nursing homes, or through home visits. We know, Lord, that as we serve others in your name, our lives are full of meaning and purpose.

C: Accept our thanks and praise for the meaning and purpose that you give through our service to others.

A: Lord, one of the great needs of life is to know and feel that we belong to a caring and nurturing community. We give you thanks for the community of family and friends who laugh with us, cry with us, celebrate with us, and commiserate with us. We thank you for the community called your Church, where we are nurtured in your word and fed with your food.

C: Accept our thanks and praise for the communities that you give to us.

A: Lord, we thank you for the land in which we live. We thank you for the freedom we have to worship you, to gather with our friends and neighbors, and to speak our minds when necessary. We often overlook the bounty of our land in terms of personal freedom to be the persons that you created all of us to be. We thank you for our country and all who work to make it a land of equal opportunity.

C: Accept our thanks and praise for the country in which you allow us to live.

A: And now, for whom else shall we pray ... (you may offer petitions aloud or silently at this time.)

A: We thank you for all these gifts in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

(Please be seated)

POST-COMMUNION CANTICLE: LET ALL THINGS NOW LIVING V. I

#881

I Let all things now living
a song of thanksgiving
to God the creator triumphantly raise,
who fashioned and made us,
protected and stayed us,
who still guides us on to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us,
God's light goes before us,
a pillar of fire shining forth in the night,
till shadows have vanished
and darkness is banished,
as forward we travel from light into light.
